THINKING OUT LOUD

By H. M. L.

We have heard much conversation about the major role which veterans of World War I and Wo ld War II will play in this year's elections. In the Second Congressional District, where we live, we shall have an opportunity to see just how co-operative veterans can be in electing one of their own members, Don Hoffman of Placerville, veteran of both world warrs, against an incumbent, Clai Engle, who 'did not choose" to serve in the U. S. armed forces during the late war.

The election of Hoffman is a foregone conclusion if the veterans make up their minds in time, and go out with their whole-hearted support to defeat Engle, who has actually accomplished nothing in his three years in office aside from securing Congressional approval to giving Yuba Narrows dam the name of Harry L. Englebright.

Perhaps we should give Engle credit for his endeavors in getting the iniquitous L208 order lifted which his fellow New Dealers had used to close the gold mines during the war. To that extent he has been of some actual service to his district though how much he had to do with lifting the New Deal ban is shrouded in the fog what hangs over Washington, D. C.

And perhaps we should not forget the bills, each one of which was introduced with a resounding hurrah and which, in most cases, have since died of pernicious enaamia. Good bills, most of them, but somehow they did not attract much attention outside Engle's office and his publicity secretary. She always had a good word for them and passed them along with a trombone solo to the press.

The infant martality among Representative Engle's bills, amounting to alsomt 100 per cent, leaves us wondering just what use Engle could possibly be to his constituents next year when the House of Representatives will have a large Republican majority. For his mere futile presence there will always remind that majority that out west in the count y's biggest congressional istrict habit is stronger than conviction. We ould probably suffer unfer the s s. would probably suffer under the majority's contempt for a district that, though having its biggest industry, gold mining, singled out by long haired and long nosed New Deal reformers for a vicious punishment in the sacred name of war emergency, it still preferred to send a representatove of the same discredited political breed back to congress.

We appeal to war veteran Hoffman who has fought through two world wars in his country's uniform, to rally his late comrades in arms and take this futile New Dealer off the back of the Second District. We believe it will not be hard to do. This is the year when the country has made up its mind that it will no longer permit a small coterie of mediocrities to "tax and tax" and "elect and elect." and "spend and spend", and thus run and ruin a nation of 135 million people. Even President Truman senses the change in national sentiment. He talks now of very definitely approaching the time when we shall have a balanced budget. He talks about it, but so far has done nothing to lift a feather's weight from monstrous burden of the taxation. His fine talk about guaranteeing everyone in a taxed cursed land, a job, sounds to us very much like putting all the industrious and hard working citizens of this country to work supporting bigger and better poor houses. It sounds like spending billions more to pauperize a country that left to itself is naturally thifty and self-sustaining.

The philosophy which gave rise to the late Harry Hopkins declaration regarding taxing and spending, is still very much alive in Washington. The way to kill it, is to deprive those representatives who believe the way to maintain themselves is to tax and tax and to spend and spend, is to go to the polls and vote to remove them from the U. S. Treasury spigot. We think this is the year to do precisely that, and especially in the Second Congressional District.

NEVADA CITY

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
—AND—
FIFTY YEARS AGO

NEVADA CITY 50 YEARS AGO

A Page for Nevada City: Thursday's edition of the San Francisco Post contains a full page write up of Nevada City and her mining interests. The article contains a large amount of information regarding our town, past and present, and particularly about the mining outlook of the district, which cannot fail to be of considerable benefit to us, as the Post's extensive circulation among capitalists and mining men will bring the article to the attention of those who may be thinking of investing in gold mines. Mr. F. C. Roberts the Post's traveling correspondent, has been here for the past two weeks and prepared the writeup from reliable data obtained from parties who are in a position to give authentic information.

New Lumber Yard: T. B. Byrne, the contractor and builder has opened in connection with his business a lumber yard on upper East Broad Street, adjoining his residence.

Brief Mention: Thomas Ingram of the Grass Valley Telegraph, was on board the steamer Umbria when an accident happened the other day. Fortunately the vessel was but slightly injured.

E. J. Rector of this city was elected by the recent Democratic state convention as a delegate to the national convention. He found it impossible to attend and accordingly sent his proxy to Hon. Caminetti.

(Advt) W. W. Waggoner, civil engineer and surveyor, deputy county surveyor and deputy U. S. mineral surveyor; office in Roberts and Morgan Block, Nevada City.

Married Last Night: Julius Rosenthal and Miss Kate Oliver were united in marriage last evening by Rev. J. Sims, the ceremony being performed at the Congregational parsonage. The contracting parties are known to most our our readers, the bride being the daughter of John Oliver and a very estimable young lady. The groom is one of the young business men of our town and is of quite industrious habits. We join with their many friends in wishing them the greatest happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Rosenthal have taken rooms at Mrs. Quigley's on Pine Street.

Born: Near Nevada Ciey, January 10 to the wife of N. Tobiassen, a son.

NEVADA CITY 75 YEARS AGO

Charley Kent yesterday left for Reno to purchase beef cattle for the market. Good cattle are scarce on this side of the Sierras at this season. The animals were purchased by Cashin and Kent from the celebrated Walsh ranch in Colusa county—they are fat enough to make good beef.

(Advt) John Caldwell, Attorney at Law and Justice of the Peace. Office nearly opposite National Exchange Hotel, Nevada City.

(Advt) Sea Moss Farina for Puddings at Shurtleffs.

(Advt) Nevada Theatre, Carter's Dramatic Combination! This star troupe which has been playing with great success for the past week in Grass Valley will open in this city for Two Nights Only. Monday evening March 13, '71. Admission: Dress Circle $1.00, Parquette 50c. Doors open at 7 p. m.

The Banner Mine is yielding better than it has for a year, some very rich ore from the mine has recently been worked at Maltman's.

The Pittsburg is paying it's regular dividends and the Pennsylvania is yielding good returns. The Orleans and Manhattan companies have both good looking ledges and are being rapidly developed.

Other companies prospecting in the district have good indication of success.

Death of an old resident: C. Beekman yesterday received a letter from San Francisco announcing the death of L. P. Johnson who some years ago kept the Golden Gate Hotel in this city and afterward resided in Grass Valley where he kept a saloon with Jim Jeffrey. Johnson leaves a wife and child to mourn his loss.

The time is fast approaching when the people will be called upon to show their preference for those desirous of serving them in the several offices within their gift. The most prominent of those whose names will be presented to our next convention as competitors for Judge Robert's place is the name of our fellow townsman Mr. Chas. Kent; against whose anticedents—politically and otherwise no person can with truth say a word.

For the assembly there are quite a number of persons who would accept the nomination for this body of whom the most prominent are: A. A. Smith of North Bloomfield, George B. Newell, Captain McBride of Sebastopal. Captain McBride is an old war torn veteran who marched to the "music" of the Union's with General Sherman from Atlanta to the sea."

For the office of County Recorder there is but one man whose name has yet been mentioned and that is J. M. Walling of Rough and Ready, another veteran soldier of the Union.

For County Assessor we Republicans of the Ridge intend to press the name of John T. Morgan of this place.

For the head of the state ticket for governor, Newton Booth is nominated the man whom the Republicans on the Ridge desire to have.

The great demand now is local energy in the advancement of the interests of the county and a hearty co-operation of the people of the county in all enterprises tending to develop the county.

SEN. SEAWELL IS NEVADA CITY VISITOR

State Senator Jerrold Seawell a visitor in Nevada City Saturday said that overhauling of the entire tax structure of the state government will be one of the major problems which will confront the next session of the legislature.

"The state board of equalization which collects three fourths of all state taxes will play a major part in this overhauling." Seawell is a candidate for the board from the third district.

"Even though the board has no power to change tax laws the legislature always looks to that body for advice on tax readjustments," Seawell pointed out.

The gas tax, sales tax, truck tax and insurance tax are the prinpipal state revenues collected by the board which also sits as an equalization body on county tax assessments appeals.

Seawell has been a member of the legislature budget committee since its inception in 1941 and has made a study of taxes and state spending.

The Roseville senator recently returned from visiting all 25 counties in the northern California equalization district and was warmly received by all.

Eighty five per cent of the newspapers in the district are supporting his candidacy as well as many supervisors, assessors, city and county clerks and other public officials.

A. MERRIAM CONNER ILL IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Fred Conner, whose pen name is A. Merriam Conner is ill in the Nevada City Sanitarium. It is reported this morning that her condition is good. Mrs. Conner for a number of years has contributed to the Nevada City Nugget the feature: "Just Wonderin". Her verse and prose have endeared her to many a thoughtful reader. An eastern broadcasting station regularly recites her verses and a book of poems she completed some months ago now finds a sale in England as well as in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Conner reside at The Cedars a charming country home near North San Juan where Mrs. Conners many admirers and friends often visit her and her husband.

TREES PLANTED TO HONOR NEV. CITY WAR DEAD

A great concourse of people residents of Nevada City and environs gathered in Pioneers Park yesterday afternoon and while the fire bell solemnly tolled once for each of the 23 Nevada City men who gave their lives in Wo ld War II comemortive services were held and trees planted in their honor.

While preparations were made for holding the service, rain or shine, the day proved to be clear and warm.

Mayor Ben Hall gave a short address speaking on the significance of the ceremony.

In charge of the dedication service were Howard C. Bennetts, post commander; James Jeffers, senior vice commander; Leonard T. Hodges, junior vice commander; Hobart L. Childers, officer of the day;; Dennis E. Coughlan Jr., and Stanley Jones, color bearers;; Charles and Leroy Hoskins, color guards; Joseph Day, quartermaster; Carl J. Hieronimus, chaplain and A. E. Wharff, adjutant.

Responsible for the arrangements were Garrison, commander elect and general chairman; D. R. Paine, Carl Hieronimus, Nye Johnson, William H. James, Craig Davies, Hobart Childers, A. E. Wharff and Howard C. Bennetts.

The soldiers and sailors of Nevada City who gave their lives in the late war and for whom Sunday's services were in memorium were William Graham Bennett, Ernest Chapman, Albert Conti, Eugene Davies, Fred Dohm, Merton Downey, Tevis Ferguson, Caswell Fisher, Bert Graham, William R. Livesay, David McCraney, Louis G. Netz, James M. Odegaard, William Pohley, Glen Ponticelli, Robert D. Proctor, Eugene Rickard, Virgil Roseborough, Clifford Max Ruth, Reed Shurtleff, Walter O. St. John, Jr., Carl J. Tobiassen Jr. and Gus Wasley.

Following the dedication ritual a U. S. army rifle squad from Camp Beale fired a salute and an army bugler sounded taps. Closing the program Bugler Howard Tryon of Banner Mountain Post played the Republic plot in Pine Grove Cemetery.

PUBLIC SPIRITED CITIZENS AID AIRPORT PROJECT

Seven public spirited residents of Nevada City have loaned the chamber of commerce $1000 so that work in improving the Nevada City Airport can begin immediately.

H. F. Sofge chamber secretary, stated yesterday that 2000 tickets will be sold for the airport benefit dance, to be given April 27 in the Elks club ballroom. Every member of the chamber will be asked to sell a consignment of tickets.

Sofge said that work in leveling off the east and west runway of the airport will be started Monday by John Hilliard, earth moving contractor, who has agreed to do the job for $2000. Urgency in doing the work now, Sofge explained was the need of moving earth while it was still moist from recent rains. Money advanced by the business men for this purpose will be refunded from proceeds of the airport dance.

Prizes offered at the dance will include such rarities as nylon hose, hams, flitches of bacon and butter.

Thomas Bowles manager of the city airport reported yesterday there are nine planes that now make the airport their home. The hangars are filled to capacity and some planes must stand out in the weather with hoods over their engines.

The planes range in horse power from 65 to 450. One of newest is an Ercoupe, a family plane advertised as spin proof with a 75 horse power engine which flies 72 miles to a gallon of gasoline. Bowles announced that Cecile Durbrow Baker and Michael Paul his pupils, have recently been granted private licenses and that student permits have been given Mac Carter and Carl F. Anderson.

IN THREE DAYS 1400 PERSONS ARE VACCINATED

Mrs. Isabel Hefelfinger, school nurse reports that 1400 adults and children were vaccinated in three days in which the school clinic was open to those desiring vaccination.

Drs. Norbert Frey, W. W. Reed and B. W. Hummelt conducted the program assisted by Mrs. Hefelfinger and Mrs. Ruth Irish, nurses and the high school girls class in hygiene.

The Original Sixteen To One Mine

The Sixteen to One Mine reports for the year 1945: Bullion sales $116,081, with a net income of $22,692. There are 164,000 shares outstanding upon which a dividend of 25 cents per share was paid in 1945, the same as in the two preceding years. Total assets of the company are given as $456,064.

This company like all other gold mines, has been hamstrung by the L208 order and has been working only on a very limited basis ever since the war started.

Old timers will recall that it was in 1907 when the whole mining fraternity was discussing the remarkable strike made by H. L. Johnson who had been drifting south in the old Knickerbocker tunnel almost under the town of Alleghany.

From hand picked specimen ore he sorted over $400,000 in gold. Later on W. H. Martin and Bob Hathaway of this city took over the dump and from it recovered over $50,000.

In 1919 apex litigation with the Twenty One Company resulted in a judgment for the operating company and the Twenty One was purchased for $60,000.

The combined Tightner and Sixteen to One properties now consists of over 20 claims which extend on either side of Kanacka Creek for two miles. The Tightner shaft has reacned a depth of 2000 feet.

Up to 1930 the Sixteen to One had paid out in dividends $2,706,000 and had produced well over $9,000,000 in bullion. The mine for the past several years has been under the able management of Clayton A. Bennett of Nevada City.

MISS FRANCES JONES FUNERAL HELD SATURDAY

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the Hooper and Weaver Mortuary for Miss Frances Jones who died Thursday in the Jones Memorial Hospital. Cremation followed in Sacramento.

Miss Jones' brother Dr. Carl P. Jones died 18 months ago of a heart attack. Her brother Judge George L. Jones of Nevada City is the sole survivor of a family of four sons and two daughters born to early day residents, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones for whom the Jones Memorial Hospital in Grass Valley was dedicated.

Miss Jones had lived practically all her life in Grass Valley and for decades made her home with her late brother Dr. Carl P. Jones at the family residence on Auburn Street. She was greatly interested Grass Valley's civic affairs, in gardening and in a number of charities.

Her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Jones were prominent in Grass Valley's early history. Miss Jones was born in Placer County. Besides her brother Judge Jones, two nieces, Misses Nancy and Helen Jones and a nephew E. H. Jones of Salinas survive.

Former Willow Valley Resident Succumbs

Funeral services were held in Myers Mortuary Chapel in Grass Valley Friday for Mrs. Nettie May Lewellen who died in a local hospital Wednesday.

Mrs. Lewellen was born in Willow Valley, adjoining Nevada City 69 years ago. She was the wife of Austin E. Lewellen and mother of Leby S. Williams of Richland, Tehama County.

Interment was in the Greenwood Cemetery in Grass Valley.

O-FISH-ALL HOLIDAY MAY 1 IS PROCLAIMED

The Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce has proclaimed the First of May an O-Fish-All holiday. It had always been an unofficial holiday, but the chamber now makes it official. The proclamation follows:

WHEREAS, Grass Valley is at the gateway to the great stream and lake area of California, where the trout restlessly wait behind each log and witlow to dash forth to do battle with lure and bait, and

WHEREAS, For these many years past, various disciples of Isaac Walton have fared farth on the 1st day of May, having in mind the laying of a foundatoin for many an interesting and often unbelievable—tale of prowess with rod and fly (or bait) while others being harassed by the responsibility of accumulating great wealth have been denied this privilege, and

WHEREAS, The governing board of the Grass Valley School District has determined that it is better to have fished and lost than never to have fished at all and that the proper education of a neophite fisherman cannot commence too early and have therefore declared a holiday for the first day of May and

WHEREAS, The adult members of this great fraternity feel that it is their duty to share in the responsibility for the education of its younger members,

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED: That the first day of May, 1946, be and that said day is hereby proclaimed to be an O-Fish-All Holiday and each and every angler is hereby directed to go forth upon the streams and lakes and take therefrom the awaiting trout and remember well the description of these which have escaped for the telling of them, while it may be doubted, cannot be contradicted.

WESLEY B. DONNENWIRTH,
President, Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce.

ROTARY ANNS PROMISED GOOD TIME IN SACTO.

Wives of Nevada City Rotarians, the Rotary Anns—will have just as good a time as their husbands when they go to Sacramento for the three day meeting of District 105, which convenes in the capital Easter Sunday, April 21.

This announcement is made by Arthur Devlin, Sacramento attorney who is the general chairman of the ladies entertainment committee.

Not only is the conference dinner dance at the Senator Hotel Monday evening being specially arranged with a view to their special enjoyment but they will be tendered special luncheon Monday noon at the Tuesday club house 27th and L Streets just across the street from the famous Sutter's Fort.

A tour of this shrine of California's early history will follow the luncheon which will be all the more interesting because of the many improvements recently made to give the fort a closer resemblance to what is was in General Sutter's period.

On the same afternoon the Rotary Anns will be served a tea in the crocker Art Gallery another Sacramento show place which was built by Judge E. B. Crocker at the time of the big California railroad development.

Tours of the city and the surrounding area also are being planned for the Rotary Anns and they also will be guests at the big district governor's dinner closing the conference Tuesday night.

MODEL BONUS PLAN COULD BE USED

Two recent differences arising from current state moves to pay separate bonuses to veterans of World War II point to the need for some form of national guidance in determining the maximum or minimum a state should allow in honoring the men and women who served their nation in war.

Massachusetts veterans in organized efforts recently pressed state legislators for immediate action on a bill which would boost the state's veterans bonus to $1000, while in a recent statement at Baltimore, Jack Hardy, national commander of the Amvets said he was opposed to bonuses.

Most states currently concerned with bonus legislation are thinking in terms of paymenes ranging from an average of $150 to $300 for each veteran. None has yet stressed any particular method or means of arriving at a figure which it seems general public sentiment should determine as equitable.

The Massachusetts proposal calls for raising the money by state lottery and probably that is why the veterans there are determined to do their utmost to bring the figure to $1000. They are demanding at least to the point of threatening retaliation at the polls against legislators who oppose the measure.

The Amvets commander meanwhile urged veterans to to concentrate on "jobs for everybody and a chance to earn a living." It was his opinion that veterans now have a bigger job on the home front than they had abroad because they are faced with restoring a "damned sick country."

That is the bonus picture as represented in these two sources. It is more complex on a nation wide basis and for that reason probably many of the legislators in the 48 states would be thankful for some guidance in dealing with bonus legislation. That guidance it seems should be in the hands of the people of each state as well as with the veterans themselves through their many organizations.

Veterans fought primarily for the nation as a whole. They are going to be thankful for whatever their respective states do for them but Jim Jones is likely to be a lot chagrined if he sees Joe Brown across the border getting a bonus twice as big as his.—Contributed.

THE PRESS PROTESTS

The astounding proposal that an army brasshat be empowered to stand at every newspaper editor's elbow and tell him what he may and may not publish, made the other day before the U. S. senate's atomic energy committee, reveals a degree of hysteria in military thinking on the A-bomb.

Specifically the proposal would extend guilt under the espionage law to any person publishing military secrets. This is a harmless sound, since no American not a traitor would wish to disseminate information harmful to the United States. Yet an opening wedge to military censorship of the press—for this is what this proposal plainly is—would potentially be a very dangerous abridgement of the right of the American people to a free press.

Once begun where might such censorship end? Once it were admitted as a precedent with army autocrats determining in a hundred categories of news where the boundary of "military secrecy" might be violated every editor might eventually find himself wondering each morning whether he would eat lunch in his accustomed restaurant or in an army guardhouse.

The record of American newspapermen in keeping military secrets throughout the war—when they had knowledge of hundreds of them—is as proud as that of the army itself. Voluntary censorship was loyally assumed by the American press at the outbreak of the war and was observed to the letter in 999 newspaper offices in a thousand.

After that record suggestion of military censorship in time of peace is a thing to be resented and protested—not only on behalf of newspapermen but on behalf of the public it is their function to inform.—Contributed.

MANY OFFICERS RETURN TO ARMY SERVICE

Some 107,668 temporary commissioned officers in the army of the United States applied for appointment as commissioned officers in the new peace time regular army under provisions of a recent bill authorizing such commissions, the war department announced recently. Of the total figure 58,419 applications are for the army air force, 26,723 for the army service forces and 22,516 for the army ground forces.

"Applications were closed on March 1 but due to the tremendous response the final number has just become recorded even with a greatly expanded number of personnel working night and day" said Maj. Gen. H. N. Gilbert, USA director of military personnel procurement service an activity of the adjutant general's office, charged with the integration of officers into the regular army.

"With approximately 10,000 regular army commissions open at the present time or one to every ten applications, the competition is unusually keen and should therefore secure for the new peace time regular army the highest type of officer" General Gilbert continued.

All temporary commissioned officers in the army of the United States who served during the war were eligible to apply for appointment as commissioned officer in the regular army in accordance with the congressional act, provided they submitted their applications prior to March 1. This applied to officers who are still serving in the army of the United States both in this country and overseas as well as those who have been separated from the service. Under the present provisions of the bill the total number of commissioned officers is limited to 25,000 although the ultimate officer strength of the peace time regular army has not yet been determined.

Nevada County Civilian Income Is $10,150,000

Individual incomes of Nevada county civilians totalled $10,150,000 in 1944 according to a survey by the research department of the California state chamber of commerce, announced today. This was a decrease of 1.8 per cent from the 1939 individual income figure of $10,339,000. During this five year period California civilian individual incomes gained 144.6 per cent with a 109.8 per cent national gain.

Impact of war time population and industrial changes on the economy of California counties is appraised in the study measured by net incomes from wages and salaries, proprietors profits, property and other sources.

Proprietors net incomes, profits of proprietors and partners in non-corporate farm and business enterprises in Nevada County increased from $961,000 in 1939 to $1,493,000 in 1944.

Property income, including dividends, interest, net rentals and royalties was $1,425,000 in 1939 and $1,037,000 in 1944.

Other incomes a classification including pensions, relief, compensation, social security and in 1944 military dependents allotments and veterans muster out pay increased from $1,118,000 in 1939 to $1,222,000 in 1944.

Principal source of wage and salary income to Nevada county residents was trade and service enterprises which accounted for $1,701,000 in 1944. Utilities operation accounted for $1,015,000, manufacturing for $708,900 and agriculture for $176,000 in the 1944 local payrolls.

In the mountain counties region, comprising Alpine, Amador, Calaveras, El Dorado, Lassen, Mariposa, Modoc, Mono, Nevada, Placer, Plumas, Sierra, Siskiyou, Trinity, Tuulumne counties civilian incomes rose from $102,276,000 in 1939 to $173,371,000 in 1944 or a gain of 68.96 per cent. Wages and salaries climbfrom $68,683,000 in 1939 to $110,624,000 in 1944 or a gain of 61.06 per cent as compared to an average of over the state of 177.2 per cent.

California individual income of civilian residents rose from $5,013,000,000 in 1939 to $12,263,400,000 in 1944 and according to preliminary estimates dropped to $11,942,100,000 in 1945. The state wide civilian per capita income was $1480 in 1944 compared with the 1944 national civilian per capita income of $1062 and California 1939 per capita of $714.

'PURGE' BLAST OF WALLACE IS PARTY BLUNDER

By Ralph H. Taylor

The political career of many a man in public life has been ruined by a plain blunder. Sometimes the blunder is accidental—a slip of the tongue say—and the ruinous result is not deserved.

But whatever effect the "purge" statement of Henry Wallace may have on his political future it won't be the result of a chance mistake. He spoke very clearly, very deliberately and apparently after having thought the matter through in accordance with his convictions.

He said the Democratic party should "purge" all senators anl representatives who have opposed administration leadership on fundamental issues. They should be read out of the party declared Wallace and barred from seeking reelection on the Democratic ticket. Moreover he advised the same "purge" for the Republican party. Representatives elected by the people should follow their respective party platforms without question or dissent, he contended or be refused the right to go before the people to campaign for reelection.

There are three things very wrong in that political doctrine—one that is false, one that is preposterous and one that is dangerous.

Nearly 70 per cent of the area of Uruguay is devoted to producing fresh and frozen meat.

The fortunate return of Mr. and Mrs. David Maltman in the nick o time saved their ranch home on the McCourtney Road Wednesday from destruction by fire.

The flames were burning the brush near adjoining outbuildings and the rear of the house. A telephone message to the state forestry camp at Nevada City and the Grass Valley fire department brought two pumper trucks and crews in a few minutes. In the meantime the Maltmans fought the flames with garden hose and wet sacks. A cabin and a pile of lumber were burned but no damage was done to the house.

COST OF LIVING UP and Electric Rates go DOWN again

Most everything you buy today—to use, to eat or to wear—costs more. The average cost-of-living rise in Northern California since 1939 is 35 per cent, according to the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.
This living cost picture is not all dark and gloomy, however. The cost of the electricity you use so freely in your home has not gone up in price. In fact, the electricity which lights your home and runs all your appliances has been steadily dropping in price.
Six major reductions in electric rates have brought the cost of electricity DOWN 16 per cent since 1939. These reductions save electric customers $6,042,866 a year. P. G. and E. electric rates, already among the lowest in the nation, go down even further with the latest reduction, which becomes effective April 15th—a reduction that puts our rates 20 per cent below the national average.

SEAWELL IN FAVOR OF NEW PATROL BLDG.

Dear Mr. Leete:

Being a member of the State Public Works Board. I will have to pass on the allocation of funds under the State Postwar Construction Act. It becomes my duty to study the various proposed construction projects recommended in this act.

In carrying out this responsibility particularly that part relating to motor vehicle projects. I find there has been allocated to your commuity an appropriation in the amount of $25.-000 for a new highway patrol building in the city of Grass Valley.

I am happy to advise that as a member of this board I will recommend that this appropriation be granted.

Sincerely yours,

JERROLD L. SEAWELL.

Another War Bride Joins Grass Valley Husband

Another war bride with her two-year old youngster arrived in Grass Valley from Australia this week to join her husband. Leonard Hodge, the former Miss Lillian Helen Bryde comes from Sydney and was obliged to wait almost ten months before she could secure passage on a bride ship.

For the present the reunited couple are living with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Grenfell, 212 Depot Street, Grass Valley. Hodge returned several months ago for his discharge from the army. He had served with the army's 4th Replacement Depot in Australia. He is now employed in servicing and installing heaters and household appliances.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hadfield returned to their home on Broad Street Thursday after an absence of several months in New York where they visited Mrs. Hadfield's sisters Mrs. Carroll Searls and Mrs. Alfred Kolberg.

The U. S. owning 387 million acres is next to Russia the world's greatest landlord.

Miss Helen Barker Weds Lieut. Sheridan Baker USNR

Announcements of the wedding of Miss Helen Elizabeth Barker and Lieut. Sheridan Warner Baker Jr. USNR have been received by friends and relatives of the bride in Nevada City.

The ceremony took place April 6th in St. Clement's Episcopal Church in Berkeley. Rev. J. Henry Thomas read the service.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar E. Barker who resided in this city for many years. The bride was given away by her brother Morgan Barker due to the unavoidable absence of her father in Washington, D. C.

The bride's white satin gown was fashioned along formal lines and trimmed with Brussels rose point lace that adorned her mother's and her grandmother's wedding gowns. Her grandmother was the late Mrs. D. E. Morgan of this city. The fingertip veil cascaded from a crown of orange blossoms. The bride carried a bouquet of white bouvardia and orchids.

Mrs. Charles Leighton Jr. was matron of honor. Lieut. Charles D. Barker brother of the bride, was best man. Both Lieut. Baker and Mrs. Baker are graduates of the University of California.

William Dorville Miner Is Borne To Rest

Funeral services will take place this afternoon in the Hooper and Weaver Mortuary for William H. Dorville who died Friday in a Grass Valley hospital after eight years of illness. Rev. Jesse Rudkin conducted the service. Cremation will take place in East Lawn, Sacramento.

Dorville, a native of Indiana, aged 67 years lived in Butte, Montana where he followed both farming and mining, for 30 years. He and his family arrived in Grass Valley 15 years ago and purchased a home 222 Maiden Lane. He was employed in local mines until illness forced his retirement. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias.

Surviving are his wife, Myrtle, his sons, Frank and Thomas of Grass Valley Warren of Butte and William Dorville of Stockton and daughters, Mrs. William Lund and Mrs. Margaret Joyner of Oakland and Mrs. Judith Dellman of Butte. There are eleven grandchildren.

New Ordinance To Provide For Wider Streets

At a special meeting of the city council an ordinance was adopted providing for widening several blocks of streets in the business district by cutting down the width of sidewalks.

Streets to be thus improved are Commercial Street between Pine and the junction of Main and Commercial, Main Street between its junction with Commercial and the Plaza and Pine Street between Broad and Commercial Streets.
